better than 32 per crack. Over in the Bay Loop Redondo's senior Phil Herman has claimed top honors with 115 total points to date.

Three local boys figure in the top ten scorers of each loop. North Seniors Gary Little and Tony Mance hold down second and third, respectively, while Torrance's John Sandstrom claims eighth place in the Bay struggle.

Leuzinger-Torrance Clash-Tomorrow

Leuzinger's Olympians visit Torrance tomorrow night when the Tartars host the Olympian quint in the first of the Bay League second round games. The Leuzinger five, still looking for their first Bay League win in two years, is expected to provide Torrance fans with a thriller, as basketball games go.

John Sandstrom, who has hit the bucket for 63 points of the current Bay loop campaign, should be the Tartars' best insurance against the Olympians. The Torrance five has had hard luck so far this season and has chalked up a 1-4 seasonal effort in the present Bay standings, while the Leuzinger hoopsters have compiled an 0-5 mark. The game, scheduled to begin at 8:15, should see lots of action as the two teams battle for the bases in the Bay loop.

The Tartar Jay Vees will start the action as they host their Olympian counterparts at 7:00 in the THS gym.

Other Bay League games pit unbeaten Mira Costa against second place co-holder Santa Monica at the Mustang gym, while the other two second place teams, Redondo and Inglewood, do battle at the Inglewood gym.

Midget Race Tops Bill at Ascot Oval

The Indianapolis drivers and their powerful Offenhauser midgets will make their local 1959 debut Sunday afternoon, Feb. 15, when J. C. Agajanian presents a 100-lap USAC National Championship midget auto race at new Ascot Stadium, 183rd and Vermont Avenue.

A tremendous battle between George Amick, who finished second at Indianapolis in 1958, and Tony Bettenhausen, who took fourth in the 1958 "500," had the fans up on their feet yelling during the 50-mile feature that closed out the 1958 season on the fast Stadium.

Normandale Basketball Teams Play

Basketball was the order of the day at the Stephen White gym Monday evening as the Normandale Midget Basketball League opened play. The three games on tap were the Trojans against the Knights, the Orojets vs. the Bruins, and the Dukes pitted against the Vikings. All three games were somewhat lopsided in the final analysis.

The Knights, led by Montano, who hit the bucket for 10 of the victor's 17 points, came out on top of a 17-8 low scoring ball game.

In the second encounter of the evening, the Orojets came up with a 38-24 victory over the Bruins, but they had to do it the hard way—coming from behind a 16-12 Bruin lead at half-time. Hosea was Orojet high point man with 12 points.

Closing the evening's activities, the Dukes met and conquered the Vikings as the Vikings found themselves on the short end of a 14-point disadvantage. D. Hayden was high for the game with 10 points.

Boys Turn Out 387 Strong For League Sign-Up

'North Torrance Little League signed up 387 boys on registration day last Saturday at McMaster Park. The unexpected large number of boys not only surprised and pleased league president Herb Fisher, but also gave him several problems. A Little League normally provides baseball experience for 150 boys.

Last year the North Torrance Little League roster included 234 boys and an elaborate farm system playing at school playgrounds was organized to handle the overflow. The big problem this year is to provide facilities for 150 more boys.

The League's directors have decided to build a second diamond alongside the present one at Dominguez Field, located on 190th and Beryl. This, along with reconditioning of the present diamond, must be scheduled in between the player try-outs Feb. 14, for the Eastern Division, and Feb. 21 for the Western Division and Spring practice.

North High Will Battle Monarchs In League Game

North High's Saxon Varsity hoopsters will host the league leading Monarchs of Morning-side High tomorrow night for what should prove to be one of the hottest basketball games in the area. The Monarchs are undefeated in Pioneer League play for the season, while the Saxons hold down a 2-4 record.

Gary Little and Tony Mance will back up the North quint as the Saxons attempt to reverse the first meeting of these two squads, which Morning-side won, 50-48, as a last-minute scoring attempt by the Saxons was staved off.

The Saxons will observe Dad's Night at the half-time point. The fathers of the Varsity players have been invited to attend the game as guests of the squad and coach Bill Wood.

The probable Saxon starting team is: Little (F), Mance (F), Mady (C), Wennstrom (G), and Golphenee (G).
